

Why We are Here

The DeWitt District Library's purpose is to empower lifelong learning, to engage our community, and to provide access to a broad range of information, ideas, and enrichment opportunities.

What We Value

Welcoming and Collaborative Environment

We create an inclusive community through connections with each other and our partners.

Intellectual Freedom and the Right to Read

We believe that the preservation of a free society and a creative culture depend upon open communication and access to ideas.

Equity

We celebrate people's uniqueness and believe everyone should be empowered to learn and succeed.

Adaptability in Service

We strive to anticipate and respond to the changing needs of our community in order to provide tools, access, and information.

Connection & Collaboration

Foster relationships to promote connection among our patrons and enrich their lives.

Investment in Creativity

Helping patrons imagine possibilities and explore freely in an adequate space, with sufficient resources, in a supportive environment.

Healthy Organizational Culture

Engage in operations where employees feel valued, supported, and motivated to contribute to our strategic goals and promote efficiency while contributing to a positive, inclusive, and collaborative environment.

Engagement

Increase communication between library staff and patrons to create a more informed and involved community

Accessible Library

Provide an accessible place to gather, socialize, explore resources, and learn.
